OBJECTIVE

I would like to put my experience of troubleshooting and repairing hardware to better use. I have been working with electronics since I was 10. I took apart my first electronics (a PlayStation 3 controller) and successfully repaired it. I'm very tenacious towards finishing projects which I started. I have strong leadership skills and proven track records. I am looking forward to working with a company where we both benefit from each other's experience.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

- Created my own website portfolio:
